

How to Write a Poem About Someone?

Writing a poem about someone can be interesting and tough. However, with the help of some steps, you can easily write a great poem.

Here are some steps you should follow when writing a poem about someone.

1. Choose a Form

First, you should decide on the poetic form. Try to choose the one that matches your subject, and you can easily express your chosen subject.

1. Brainstorm the Special Memories

You have to brainstorm special memories about specific people and present them engagingly in the poem.

For Example, when you write a poem about a famous person, try to mention their achievements, characteristics, and some details about their personal life.

1. Describe the Person

Describe the person in detail, so the reader can easily understand your poem. You should mention their:

- Physical appearance
- Best and worst qualities
- The clothes they wear

Try to write all the details about the person and impress the readers with your poem.

1. Polishing the Poem

In this step, take a break and then start to review your poem from the reader's point of view. Readout loud several times and remove all the lines that don't make a connection with your poem.
